

Science Research Trip
to Yellowstone National Park
Easter break 2018
led by

ECOLOGY PROJECT
INTERNATIONAL

Winter in Yellowstone is a dynamic and thrilling season. Bison crowd around thermal pools while the park's predators prepare their own winter strategies. Travel and learn with EPI - you'll go beyond what most park visitors see by working with park researchers, studying animal tracks by snowshoe and heading to the Lamar Valley for a day of wolf observation.

See the following links for more information.

Mercy Yellowstone Trip Details and Enrollment
Redefine the Classroom